The horrid report has been started that George won't come. He can go most ing that he will resign his seat in the House anywhere he wants to on the Thrush. But he may have gotten wind of all the dinners that are going to be sprung on him, and shrinks from them. Aughow, it was hinted at Mrs. William Astor's dinner last evening that George wouldn't come to Newport after all, but the cottagers haven't given up hope.

There have been suggestions from various sources about purchasing a Summer home in the suburbs of Washington, which, at the end of his official term, might be soid at Somebody has started the report that the end of his official term, might be sold at considerable advance.

The country rejoiced that sufficient grace had been vouchasfed the President to "have scruules" against Washington to "have scruules" against Washington editors did say that the spiteful allusion did say that the spiteful allusion did was in bad taste, but they were not au fait in Indianapolis social ethics.

It has now been made public that while Mrs. Harrison spoke the technical truth when she denied any intention on the part of the President "to purchase a Summer home in the suburbs of Washington." Elder Harrison's "decided scraples" did not prevent members of his family from making prudent investments in undeveloped suburban real estate to a very considerable extent.

In the Registry of Deeds of Montgomery County, Md., there is duly noted the fact that within a few weeks Mrs. Harrison has become the owner of 218,000 square feet of corner lots at Glen Echo, a beantiful suburb eight miles from the Cupitol, just over the District line, for the price of $21,783.
